C I R C U L A R .

REV. AND DEAR SIR:—

I am informed by the Publisher of the "CALENDAR" that the patronage which the Paper now receives is so limited as hardly to defray the necessary expenses of publication; and that unless new Subscriptions can be soon obtained, he will be compelled to transfer his list of subscribers to some other Periodical of the Church. Having proved itself to be an important auxiliary in the maintenance of sound Doctrine, and in the diffusion of useful Religious Intelligence through the Diocese, I trust you will concur with me in feeling that its discontinuance would be not only a sad privation, but would also be a fruitful source of positive evil. To whatever Journal the Publisher might transfer his list of subscribers, we can hardly expect to find a Paper so fully in harmony with the sentiments of the Diocese as the "Calendar." And whatever new Journal might be introduced in its place, many would soon become dissatisfied with it, and would transfer their patronage to other Journals, whose Agents would not be slow in urging them upon their notice. Such a variety of religious Newspapers, (some of which might be expected to prove ultra, or defective, in their doctrinal teaching) could hardly fail to divide and distract the minds of the members of our Church, and to mar that unity and harmony of sentiment, which has hitherto so happily characterized our Diocese. Every Clergyman can perceive what would be the effects of such a state of things in his own particular Parish.

I may also call your attention to the great local conveniences of a Diocesan Paper; not only as a medium of communication between the Bishop and the Clergy, but as a vehicle of intelligence by which every part of the Diocese may be informed of the Religious and Missionary efforts which are put forth in every other part of it. We have so long enjoyed the benefit of a paper under our own auspices, that I am sure we should not long be content with the Papers of other Dioceses; but after suffering the evils of such a state of things for a time, we should be impelled by the general voice again to establish a Journal of our own. Such an effort must be made at far greater cost and trouble than would now be required to place the "Calendar" on a firm foundation.

The present reduced patronage of the Calendar has been occasioned by a gradual dropping off of subscribers, (which I suppose is attendant on all Periodicals of the kind) and the loss is scattered throughout the Diocese. Now, the price has been fixed so low that the Publisher cannot afford to send Agents to glean subscribers through so extensive a field. He may visit a few of the larger Parishes in person, but if the Calendar is to be sustained we must rely on the zeal of the Clergy individually. The raising of three or four hundred additional subscribers is a small burden, when divided among so many; and I earnestly hope that no Clergyman will shrink from so good a work—either personally, or through the medium of a proper Agent appointed by himself. It is necessary that lists of the new subscribers should be returned to the Publisher with as little delay as possible.

Commending this matter to your attention, with especial earnestness,

I remain, very affectionately,

Your Friend and Brother,

T. C. BROWNELL, Bishop of the Diocese of Connecticut.

CIRCULAR.

Rev. Sir,

The Connecticut Historical Society, desirous of obtaining and preserving the best materials for the complete history, both civil and ecclesiastical, of this State, have determined to request from the ministers of each religious denomination an historical account of their several Parishes.

They therefore respectfully ask of you, arranged in such form as you may judge most suitable, such information as may be within your reach, concerning the following particulars

1. The origin of your Parish.
2. The names of the original church members or communicants.
3. The covenant or articles of belief, in the case of a Congregational or Baptist Church, which may have been adopted at first or afterwards.
4. The names and history of the several Ministers.
5. The names of the successive Deacons, in the case of a Congregational or Baptist Church; and of the Church-Wardens, in the case of an Episcopal Church.
6. The erection, dedication or consecration, dimensions, and cost of the several Church edifices which may have been built.
7. Any special events of religious or general interest, belonging to the history of the Parish at various periods.
8. The number of communicants or church members at different intervals.
9. The number of baptisms registered.
10. The number of marriages.
11. The number of funerals.
12. Any other topics, connected with the history of the Parish, which may seem to you of importance.

The Society cannot but be confident that the interest of the clergy in the ecclesiastical history of the State, will secure an amount of information on these subjects, which could not easily be obtained, if at all, from other sources.

You are requested to forward, by a private hand, any documents which you may prepare, to Charles Hosmer, Recording Secretary, at Hartford. They will be deposited with the collections of the Society.

Very Respectfully,

HENRY BARNARD, 2d. Corresponding Sec'y.
CHARLES HOSMER, Recording Sec'y.

Hartford, Jan. 29. 1840.

At a CONVENTION of LAY-DELEGATES from several of the Episcopal Societies in the State of Connecticut, holden at New-Haven, on the sixth Day of June, 1792.

JOHN WOOSTER, Esq. in the Chair.

THIS convention being deeply impressed with the necessity of contributing towards the support of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Seabury, Bishop of Connecticut, and taking into consideration, that a few years since, a convention of lay-delegates recommended to the several episcopal societies in this state, that a sum equal to one half-penny on the pound on the grand list of said societies, should be annually raised, for said support. And taking into consideration, also, that many societies through inattention have not altogether complied with said recommendation:

It is therefore strongly and earnestly desired and requested by the members of this convention, that the several episcopal societies in this state, do use their utmost endeavours, to raise by contribution, or otherwise, a sum equal to one half-penny on the pound, on the grand list of said societies, towards the maintenance and support of the bishop, the current year, commencing on this sixth day of June: And that said sum be raised in quarterly payments.

This convention cannot but believe, that every good churchman, will be desirous to contribute his quota, for so laudable a purpose.

And as it is uncertain how great a sum can be raised, according to the above proposition, it is requested that the sum total of the grand list, of the several episcopal societies, be returned to the next convention.

The above recommendation, voted in Convention, to be sent to the several episcopal societies in this state.

Tesse JONth. INGERSOLL, Clerk.

The CONSTITUTION of the PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH in the State of Connecticut, agreed upon by the Clerical and Lay-Deputies in Convention, and recommended to the several parishes for their approbation and adoption.

ART. 1. THE Protestant Episcopal Church, in the state of Connecticut, hath, and shall continue to have, (by the permission, and under the Providence of Almighty God) three orders of ministers, viz. Bishops, Priests and Deacons, agreeably to the institution of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

ART. 2. There shall be an annual meeting of the bishop, his clergy and lay-deputies from the several churches of the diocese, on the first Wednesday of June;—the place to be determined by the bishop.

ART. 3. When the episcopate of this church shall become vacant, by death or otherwise, the presbyters, deacons, and lay-deputies from the several churches in the diocese, shall meet within three months from the time when said vacancy shall happen, either at New-Haven or Middletown, in order to elect a person to fill the episcopal chair. And the time and place of such meeting shall be notified by a standing committee annually to be appointed in convocation for that and other purposes, by publishing the same in two, or more news-papers in this state, at least four weeks successively, previous to said meeting. And whosoever shall be elected by a majority of the votes of the clergy then present, shall be considered as duly elected, provided the person chosen shall be approved by a majority of the lay-deputies.

ART. 4. The person thus elected, shall be recommended by both clergy and laity to the oldest bishop in the United States; praying him, with two other bishops, to consecrate to, and invest with the episcopal office, the person thus recommended; and upon the bishop's producing the deed of consecration, the clergy and lay-deputies shall solemnly promise before God and the congregation, to pay him all that respect and obedience, to which he is entitled by his office, and the Canons of this Church.

ART. 5. It shall be a rule and order of this Church, that the bishop shall visit every part of his diocese (at least where there is a minister settled) once in three years.

ART. 6. If any presbyter shall exclude from the holy communion any person belonging to his congregation, the presbyter shall transmit to the bishop, an account thereof within one month, with the nature of the offence, and the evidence by which the charge is supported; and the sentence of the bishop in convocation shall be decisive; unless the person under suspension should think proper to appeal to a council of bishops.

ART. 7. When an election of lay-deputies is to be made, to represent the church of Connecticut, in general convention, those persons who shall have a majority of the votes of the laity in Convention, shall be deemed duly elected; and the manner of electing shall be by ballot.

ART. 8. The foregoing articles shall be laid before the several episcopal societies in this state for their approbation; and if approved by said societies, and a certificate of such approbation under the hand of the several clerks thereof be produced to the next annual convention, the same shall be considered and established as the constitution of the Episcopal church in this state.

Done in Convention of the Bishop, Clergy and Laity, at New-Haven, the 6th day of June 1792.

SAMUEL, Bp. Connect. President.

PHILO PERRY, Sec'y.

To the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of Church, East Hartford

GENTLEMEN:—During the late Convention of the Diocese, the undersigned were appointed a Committee to solicit and collect funds, in the several parishes, for the erection of a MONUMENT TO THE MEMORY OF RT. REV. SAMUEL SEABURY, D. D.

FIRST BISHOP OF CONNECTICUT.

It may probably be known to you, Gentlemen, that the Parish of St. James, New London, (of which the lamented Prelate was so long Rector) is about to lay the foundation of a new and spacious Church, and it has been thought a very suitable occasion for some general expression of respect and veneration towards one so eminent in the sacred office, and so intimately associated with the early history of the Church in this Diocese and Country. A Mural Monument has been proposed, as costly as the contributions will allow, and to occupy some prominent place in the new edifice.

We, therefore, in the discharge of our duty, respectfully invite your attention to this object, and beg permission to suggest, that some plan be adopted in your Parish, whereby all its members, and especially its communicants, may be allowed the opportunity of bestowing a definite sum, even though small, towards a memorial in every way so praiseworthy and well deserved. We would also desire you, as early as possible either to transmit, or name the amount collected, to the Treasurer of the Convention, THOMAS BELKNAP, Esq., Hartford, or to the Chairman of the Committee.

Very truly, Your Obedient Servants,

WILLIAM F. MORGAN,
WILLIAM JARVIS,
RICHARD ADAMS.

PREFACE.

The manuscript of this record is preserved in the family of Rev. Ransom Warner, formerly rector of St. Andrew's, by whom it was discovered many years since. It consists of forty-seven yellow and time-worn leaves about seven inches square. Undoubtedly the record originally covered the full period of Mr. Viets's service at St. Andrew's as well as his visit to the United States in 1800, but many of the leaves are now loose and probably some have been lost.

The following sketch has been inserted not because it contains any new historical material, but from the belief that it would serve to answer some questions which might occur to users of the record.

HISTORICAL SKETCH.

In the year 1740 there was organized in the easterly part of the town of Simsbury, Connecticut, known as Scotland, and within the limits of the present town of Bloomfield, the Episcopal parish of St. Andrew's. From the humble beginning of six persons it grew rapidly, in spite of the ill repute in which the sect was held by the Congregationalists. The year 1744, previous to which a glebe of fifty acres had been purchased and a church erected, marks the coming of their first pastor, Rev. William Gibbs, who was sent to the mission by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. His active labors were suddenly brought to a close after ten years by a melancholia or loss of mind. This grievous trouble was brought upon him by the barbarous treatment to which he was subjected for refusing to pay a tax laid for the support of the Congregational minister within the limits of whose parish St. Andrew's was situated. For this refusal he was arrested, thrown over a horse, and with hands and feet bound together so as to secure him to the horse was conveyed to Hartford jail. After this he performed his ministerial duties occasionally as his health would permit, and continued to reside in the parish until his death, March 22, 1777, "in the 63d year of his age, and the 33d of his mission, and 23d of his illness."

In June, 1759, Roger Viets, a native of Simsbury and a graduate of Yale College the previous year, with the degree of A.B., who through his reading in the college library had become converted to the Episcopal belief, was employed by the parish as a lay reader. After he had served two years in that capacity the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel was informed that "his religious Principles and moral Character are such, that the People of Simsbury are desirous of engaging him in their Service, if the Society should see fit to indulge them, in his Favour, with some Addition to the Salary allowed to that Mission." Upon this, "the Society taking the Case of Mr. Gibbs's Parish into Consideration, have agreed to receive Mr. Viets into their Service, and make him an Allowance of 20l per Annum, for the Care of the Church of Simsbury, as soon as he shall be admitted to holy Orders and enter upon the Care of that Parish." There being no Bishop at this time in America, Mr. Viets made a voyage to England and was admitted to orders in the spring of 1763. Upon his return he at once entered with energy upon his duties as rector of the, at this time, somewhat disorganized parish of St. Andrew's. Nor were his labors confined to this parish alone; a glance at his record of christenings will show that his work extended into other towns, some of them forty or more miles away. Under his active ministry the church increased in size and prosperity, and a new mission called St. Ann's was established at Salmon Brook in the present town of Granby, about five miles distant, where services were held one Sunday in each month. A church was also built at Great Barrington, Mass., about thirty miles distant.

His reports made to the "Venerable Society" contain numerous references to the insults and petty persecutions to which himself and his people were subjected. After having paid their rate towards his support, his followers were often forced to pay a further rate towards the support of the "dissenting" minister.

At the breaking out of the Revolution Mr. Viets favored the royalist side of the cause and in consequence was closely watched. At one time, upon suspicion of having aided in the escape of some royalist prisoners, he was seized and thrown into Hartford jail, where he was kept for a time in irons. He continued his ministry here until the close of the Revolution. In 1787, upon the invitation of the "Venerable Society," which until the acknowledgment of American independence had given its aid to the Episcopal parishes, he removed to Nova Scotia and became rector of the church in Digby, where he continued to reside until his death August 11, 1811.

An important event in his life was his visit in 1800 to the scene of his former labors in Connecticut, at which time he christened many of the children of his old friends and former parishioners.

During his connection of twenty-eight years with the parish of St. Andrew's its prosperity was noteworthy, as is shown by the fact the number of church families under his care increased during that time from 75 to 280.

Mr. Viets, who was known as a cultured and scholarly man, had a well-selected library said to have been the best in the colony in his day. He was the second of the ten children of Captain John and Lois (Phelps) Viets. He was born March 9, 1737, and was twice married, first to Hester Botsford who died April 25, 1800, and second to Mercy Isaacs. He was the father of eight children, descendants of some of whom still reside in Nova Scotia.
